Subject, Paul De Lucia, was born July 10, 1898, in Italy. He was allegedly a former member of the underworld syndicate in Chicago, Illinois, that took over subsequent to the Capone regime and he reportedly associated with members of the Capone gang.

In December, 1943, De Lucia was sentenced in Federal Court, Chicago, Illinois, to 10 years and was fined $10,000 on an Anti-racketeering charge. He was sentenced with such hoodlums in the Chicago area as Frank Nitti, Louis Campagna, William Bioff and George Browne. In June, 1948, De Lucia was paroled from Federal prison.

In March, 1957, De Lucia was released in Federal Court, Chicago, Illinois, on a $10,000 bond for Federal income tax evasions and trial was postponed until April 1, 1958. He was reported to have failed to report income of approximately $308,000 for the years 1948 to 1950 and owes taxes in the amount of approximately $128,000.

In June, 1957, De Lucia's citizenship was revoked and the case at present is before the United States Court of Appeals.

Subject presently resides in Miami, Florida, maintaining a winter residence at 4385 Pine Tree Drive, Miami Beach, Florida. He also maintains a part-time residence at River Forest, Illinois, at a home valued at approximately $150,000.

Rerep of SA Robert F. Fetzner dated February 11, 1958, at Miami and the report of SA Vincent L. Inserra dated February 13, 1958, at Chicago.

Review of rereps reflects increased investigative activity has been afforded these cases, however, there still remains considerable investigation to be completed if the objectives of this program are to be accomplished.

Pending deportation proceedings and Federal income tax violations against the subject must be followed closely and any pertinent developments must be immediately reported to the Bureau.

Concerted investigative activity must be maintained in order to determine the actual source of the subject's income. It is noted on pages 38 to 40 in re Miami report that there is set out an analysis of the subject's bank account from April, 1954 to January, 1958. During this period numerous deposits involving checks of considerable amounts were made. Efforts should be made to identify the payees of these checks in order to determine the subject's source of income and also to ascertain if this income is being obtained from legitimate or illegitimate sources.

Your attention is directed to Bulet to the New York Office with copies for all offices dated February 7, 1958, instructing that reports submitted must contain in the Administrative Section, information relative to the informants developed who are supplying information concerning the individual subject, as well as an analysis of the future potential informant coverage relative to this program. It is apparent that rerep from Miami was prepared prior to the receipt of afore-mentioned Bulet, however, you should submit immediately amended pages for the Administrative Section of this report reflecting the above.

He was sentenced to the penitentiary on the charge of conspiracy to interfere with trade and commerce by coercion, threats and violence. On interview, at the time of admission, DE LUCIA stated "They claim we got money from movie executives for protection by threats in Chicago and New York. I pleaded not guilty."

Other impressions were that DE LUCIA had rather close family ties and would require close supervision.

His father, ENRICO DE LUCIA, who was a contractor and wine merchant in Italy, died of heart trouble in 1924, at the age of 54. This individual never came to the United States. His father allegedly received his second or third year high school education, was not known delinquent and was married once.

This Admission Summary also reflects that the subject stated he married NANCY E. GIGANTE on January 3, 1927, in Chicago, Illinois. He states that she is a native of Italy, and came to the United States about 1913, married once, is in good health, unemployed and of Catholic religion. He advised the authorities when interviewed, that he left his wife sufficient money to sustain herself. He said the marriage is congenial and there were three children in their family, as follows:

He said he attended school from 1906 to 1917, completing the fourth grade of high school, and had since obtained employment as manager of a theater and has been connected with that type of work ever since. He said after his marriage, he and his wife established themselves in an apartment and later bought a ten room home in a suburb of Chicago, which they now own.

With respect to his activity in the military service, this Admission Summary reflects he enlisted in 1917 in the Italian Army, served in the infantry three years and was honorably discharged in 1920. He stated he registered for selective service on October 16, 1940, in River Forest, Illinois, and is registered with Local Board 6, Forest Park, Illinois, and is classified 3-A.

With respect to his employment, he said that from 1920 to 1924, he worked for the Dante Theater, 813 W. Taylor Street, Chicago, Illinois, as Assistant Manager, at $35.00 a week. From 1924 to 1930, he owned two restaurants in Chicago, Illinois. From 1930 to 1941, he was Vice President of The Playhouse Corporation, 410 South Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, and received $1,800.00 a year, plus a share of the profits. From 1941 to 1942, he owned and operated an 1,100 acre farm in Big Grove, Illinois.

As to resources, subject stated he owned a ten room house, a country home and an 1,100 acre farm valued at $130,000.00, on which there is a mortgage of $90,000.00. At the time this summary was taken, he stated the farm was rented and that the income from it is between $7,000.00 and $8,000.00.

An observation was made and recorded at the time this summary was written which reflected that the subject is a middle-aged white male who appears considerably older than his actual age; that he has a dejected facial expression; is slowly responsive and exhibits little emotional display during an interview. No delusions, hallucinatory experiences or major depressive trends can be elicited. This observation indicated that he was correctly oriented and his comprehension and memory are fairly good. His reasoning and judgment showed no gross defects and he is basically fairly well balanced emotionally, and no disciplinary difficulties were anticipated.

This summary also reflects that the subject, while in the penitentiary, read newspapers, magazines and books on agriculture, history and travel.

While at the U.S.P. in Atlanta, Georgia, he was assigned to General Maintenance (Clothing Issue Department).

DE LUCIA intimated that when he was released from prison, he would return to his 1,100 acre farm, located at Big Grove, Illinois, which he would operate; however, he would live with his family at 812 Lathrop Avenue, River Forest, Illinois.

This report also indicated that the subject was considered an essentially normal individual when he arrived at that institute, and has shown no change in his mental status since that time. This report also reflects that he made a satisfactory adjustment in the institute and it was felt that he has a good chance to make an adequate social adjustment outside the institute.

With respect to subject's health, this report reflected that he was in generally poor condition, but was capable of doing moderate duty; that he is suffering from diabetes mellitus and requires a daily injection of insulin. He has a deformity of the foot and requires a special pair of shoes, which had been issued to him.

While at the U.S.P., Leavenworth, he was assigned to the kitchen and as an orderly.

F. PLACES OF AMUSEMENT OR HANGOUTS FREQUENTED

It should be noted that information has previously been set forth under caption "Associates" that subject went to the Hialeah Race Track on January 22, 1958. The individuals accompanying DE LUCIA have also been described under that caption. [redacted] Hialeah Race Track,

H. PERSONAL HABITS AND PECULIARITIES

Kansas City on January 15, 1958, furnished a written admission summary with respect to the subject while he was at the United States Penitentiary, Atlanta, Georgia. The admission summary related that the subject was lazy and evades work; that he was unconcerned, indifferent, that he needs occasional checking-up as to cleanliness, tends to be emotional or moody and just gets along with others.

The summary also related that his comprehension and memory are fairly good and his reasoning and judgment show no gross defects. In the parole progress report dated July, 1947, at the United States Penitentiary, Leavenworth, Kansas, a report related that the subject was considered an essentially normal individual when he arrived at that institution and he has shown no change in mental status since that time. The report also stated that the subject made a satisfactory adjustment in the institution and it was felt that he had a good chance to make an adequate social readjustment outside of the institution.

This parole progress report also stated that the subject is of Catholic faith and attended Sunday services regularly with the exception of a few Sundays when he was in the hospital.

It is noted also that the subject is generally dressed in brown slacks and wears a light brown jacket and a porkpie type yellow hat. From observation, it also appears that the subject is devoted to the members of his immediate family.

DETAILS:

PERSONAL HISTORY AND BACKGROUND

DE LUCIA's Marriage Records

A review of the records of the United States Attorney's Office on February 24, 1958, reflected the following information as contained in the files of the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS):

The Marriage Register of the Holy Guardian Angel Church in Chicago, Illinois, dated January 30, 1927, shows that PAOLO DE LUCIA, age 29, from Naples, Italy, son of ANTHONY and MARY ANNUNZIATA was married to ANNUNZIATA GIGANTE, age 21, daughter of CIRO and ANNA PORZIO. ANNUNZIATA GIGANTE was born October 2, 1905, at Naples, Italy. These records reflect that Marriage License Certificate Number 1139936 was issued in Chicago, Illinois, for this marriage.

[redacted] Director and Legal Custodian of Records, Bureau of Vital Statistics, Cook County, Illinois, testified in DE LUCIA's denaturalization case that he had searched his records at the request of the Government for several months on either side of said date of marriage, and he was unable to locate a record showing a marriage performed or marriage license issued to PAUL DE LUCIA and NANCY GIGANTE.

b7C

Investigation by INS in this matter revealed that the Marriage License Certificate Number 1139936 was issued on January 3, 1927, and probably issued to DE LUCIA for his marriage to NANCY GIGANTE. The record is missing from the files of the Bureau of Vital Statistics, however, it was noted that the index was altered from NANCY GIGANTE to MARY GEROLA and from PAUL DE LUCIA to PETER DEL ROSA. These records also noted that the above couple was married on June 15, 1927, by Judge JOSEPH W. SCHULMAN.

This building contains numerous companies and professional offices and a perusal of the Directory of the building disclosed no names of any significance that would be connected with this case.

United States Savings Bonds

By letter dated March 11, 1958, the Treasury Department, Bureau of Public Debt, Division of Loans and Currency, 536 South Clark Street, Chicago, Illinois, furnished the following information concerning the holdings of United States Savings Bonds for PAUL and NANCY DE LUCIA:

Inscription	Issuing Agent	Issue Date and Amount	Bond Number

PAUL DE LUCIA, JR. or Mrs. NANCY DE LUCIA Address same as above	River Forest State Bank, River Forest, Illinois	9/43 $100.00	C52963679E

All of the above Savings Bonds are still outstanding.

CG 92-347

Recorder of Deeds, Chicago, Illinois

On March 18, 1958, the records of the Recorder of Deeds, Cook County, Chicago, Illinois, reflected that subject's property located at 1515 Bonnie Brae, River Forest, Illinois, is contained in Rossell's Bonnie Brothers Addition to River Forest, a sub of the northern 1/4 of the east 1/2 of the northeast 1/4 section of 1-39-12. Rec. 6-8-26. Document Number 9301663.

Book 53509, Page 450 of the above records reflected that an indenture was made on April 25, 1956, between the Oak Park National Bank, Oak Park, Illinois, in accordance with a Trust Agreement, Number 1932, with one JOSEPH I. BULGER. An installment note for $24,000.00 entered into between the above mentioned parties in connection with this trust deed to be paid $2400.00 annually on the 25th day of every April in each year thereafter until the principal and interest is paid in full. This trust deed concerns lot 19 (except 30 feet north) and lot 20 in block one of Rossell's Bonnie Brothers Addition to River Forest.

This trust deed was mailed to JOSEPH I. BULGER, 188 West Randolph Street, Chicago, Illinois, on April 25, 1956.

It is to be noted that JOSEPH I. BULGER is an attorney of PAUL DE LUCIA and is presently a co-defendant with DE LUCIA in a pending tax evasion case at Chicago.

These records also reflected that JOSEPH I. BULGER, Trustee, executed a release deed on August 6, 1957, with the Oak Park National Bank under Trust Agreement Number 1932, which was previously entered into on April 25, 1956. These records failed to reflect the name of PAUL DE LUCIA for the property at which he now lives.

Records of the Chicago Crime Commission

On February 12, 1958, [redacted] Chicago
Crime Commission, 79 West Monroe Street, Chicago, Illinois, furnished the following information to SA DENNIS W. SHANAHAN concerning PAUL DE LUCIA:

b6
b7C

An Examiner clip of November 3, 1932, stated that FRANK RIO, CAPONE's Philadelphia cell-mate, with PHILIP D'ANDREA, PAUL RICCA and MICHAEL COSTELLO were arrested at the Planters Hotel on November 2, 1932. The men said they had met to arrange to go to Florida.

A News clip of February 14, 1939, setting forth a resume of members of the CAPONE gang had the following information concerning RICCA. A mysterious figure in the history of gangdom in Chicago has been brought to light by the survey. PAUL RICCA, heretofore a handyman, but recently promoted to "big shot" leadership, is now the acting topnotch boss of the mob AL CAPONE once led. FRANK (The Enforcer) NITTI, who took over after cousin AL had been tossed into prison for income tax frauds, is said to have sponsored RICCA's rise to power. RICCA has an apartment in the 5300 block of West Jackson Boulevard. He is known in the neighborhood as PAUL DE LUCIA. A check-up revealed that RICCA has been a resident of Chicago for 14 years. Although a member of the CAPONE gang ever since his arrival, he has managed to get by without acquiring a criminal record. However, he has been seized by detectives on several occasions, only to regain his freedom promptly. His promotion to leadership created surprise in underworld circles.

A News clip of June 7, 1939, concerning CAPONE gambling places stated that with the grand jury in session, an exodus of the gang's leaders has taken place. JACK GUZIK, FRANK NITTI and PAUL RICCA have fled.

A News clipping of July 9, 1943, reveals that RICCA had a suit pending against the tenant and the owner of a downtown building for personal injuries suffered when an elevator fell. At the time of the accident RICCA was in the company of JOSEPH FISCHETTI and CHARLES FISCHETTI and ROBERT CARNAHAN. The four were alleged to have been in the building for the purpose of buying an oil painting.

A News clipping of July 10, 1943, in a special series of articles on Chicago's hoodlums, RICCA is mentioned as having been born in Naples, Italy about 1899 and served in the Italian Army during the First World War. His first employment upon coming to Chicago was that of a waiter in a coffee shop on Halsted Street and later he was a waiter in a restaurant on Wabash Avenue near Harrison, where NITTI and other hoodlums used to go. NITTI is alleged to have been attracted to RICCA, because of the latter's intelligence and induced him to work at the Lexington Hotel as a confidential aid to NITTI. Allegedly from then on RICCA assumed power in the CAPONE group.

In a memorandum dated November 10, 1943, the labor racketeers in Chicago are alleged to be the same group in control of gambling and vice, the group being:

FRANK NITTI, PAUL RICCA, LOUIS CAMPAGNA, MURRAY HUMPHREYS, JACK GUZIK, FRED EVANS, [REDACTED]
JOE FOSCO, LOUIS GREENBERG, [REDACTED]
BIOFF and BROWNE.

Allegedly NITTI, RICCA, CAMPAGNA, HUMPHREYS and GUZIK were considered as the strategic committee, with GREENBERG as the syndicate representative in the Manhattan Brewery and JOE FOSCO as the syndicate representative in the Gold Seal Liquor Company.

The motion picture extortion case went to trial in New York late in 1943 and on December 22, 1943, RICCA and the other defendants were found guilty. RICCA was sentenced on December 31, 1943, to serve 10 years in the penitentiary and fined $10,000.00. He was freed on parole on August 13, 1947, and later, in September, 1947, a Congressional hearing was held in Chicago concerning his release and the release of D'ANDREA, FIORE and CAMPAGNA.

CG 92-347

A Tribune clipping of June 1, 1940, recites that a temporary injunction was granted to GEORGE MC LANE on a petition that hoodlums were attempting to take over the financial affairs of the Bartenders and Beverage Dispensers Union, Local 278, and the following were named:

LOUIS ROMANO, President of the union, JAMES CROWLEY, Secretary and Treasurer of the union, TOM PANTON, Business Representative of the union, FRANK NITTI, MURRAY HUMPHREYS, PAUL RICCA, LOUIS CAMPAGNA, and FRED EVANS.

MC LANE claimed that he was told previously by some of the gangsters, namely NITTI, RICCA and CAMPAGNA, that he had to agree to have ROMANO take over the presidency of the union, and because of veiled threats he agreed to this. He claimed that the persons named in the injunction wanted to take control of the union in order to loot the treasury.

A court observers report dated October 28, 1940, reflects that NITTI, HUMPHREYS, RICCA, ROLAND, EVANS, [redacted] and CAMPAGNA had been indicted for conspiracy, case number 40-1646 in Cook County, the indictment being based upon pretty much the same information previously set out by [redacted] in his petition for injunction. The case was set for trial November 18, 1940, and when the case went to trial the state made an opening statement indicating the charges and then put [redacted] on the stand to testify as a state witness. [redacted] refused to testify. On December 2, 1940, the jury was directed to return a not guilty verdict. [redacted]

A Tribune clipping of February 26, 1943, reveals that a fire caused $18,000.00 worth of damage to the main building of the summer estate of PAUL RICCA near Long Beach, Indiana, the estate being valued at $75,000.00. The place included a swimming pool, tennis court, ten car garage, tea house and elaborate gardens. The place was alleged to be well equipped with gambling equipment. NANCY DE LUCIA was listed as being the record owner.

b6
b7C

CG 92-347

A Tribune clipping of March 25, 1943, credited the NITTI-RICCA-CAMPAGNA combine with the complete clean-out of the treasury of the Retail Clerk's International Protective Association, Local 1248, together with MAX POLLACK, alias MAX CALDWELL, an ex-convict and ex-bootlegger. The group were alleged to have obtained about $910,000.00.

A memorandum under date of October 14, 1947, regarding testimony of a Congressional Committee, disclosed the fact that a sum of $180,000.00 was deposited with Attorney [redacted], for payment of tax deficiencies claimed against RICCA, CAMPAGNA, D'ANDREA and GIOE.

Under date of August 29, 1950, there is a fifty-page list of alleged members of the Mafia grouped by states. Under the Illinois grouping and regarding the name PAUL RICCA, alias PAUL DE LUCIA, there is a supplementary paragraph to the effect that he is not only a member of the Mafia, but one of the senior members of the Grand Council of the International Mafia.

A memorandum under date of February 14, 1951, refers to Crime Commission file 65-50A-2213, containing a list of the Grand Council of the Mafia as prepared by [redacted] under date of May 23, 1950:

VINCENT MANGANO, alias JOE COSTA, Chairman; PHILIP MANGANO, JOE PROFACI, JOE TRAINA and [redacted] all from Brooklyn; PAUL DE LUCIA, alias PAUL RICCA, from Chicago; [redacted] from Niagara Falls; ALBERT POLIZZI, from Cleveland; and FRANK MILANO, from Akron.

A newspaper article under date of June 18, 1953, reveals that DE LUCIA and CAMPAGNA had paid $44,000.00 tax on the $190,000.00 gift dropped at BERNSTEIN's office in connection with their parole.

A newspaper article and picture under date of November 15, 1953, refers to a raid conducted on a Loop office by the Chicago Police in 1932 at the direct request of Mayor CERMAK, resulting in the arrest of PAUL DE LUCIA, in company with LUCKY LUCIANO, MEYER IANSKY and SYLVESTER AGOGLIA.

Information is contained in a memorandum to the effect that GIOE had all the information on DE LUCIA's phony naturalization papers as he (GIOE) was the one who engineered the whole deal through [redacted]

b6

Under date of February 8, 1955, a memorandum contains information setting up the top six local leaders as being RICCA, ACCARDO, HUMPHREYS, GUZIK, GIANCANA and ALEX. This memorandum also states that CAIFANO has slipped badly and was way down the list.

A memorandum dated April 4, 1955, is relative to observation of PAUL DE LUCIA, JOHN CAPONE and JIMMY ALLEGRETTI as they attended the Miami Beach Open Golf Tournament together.

United States District Court Records, Chicago, Illinois

On February 20, 1958, records of the United States District Court, Northern District of Illinois, Chicago, Illinois, were reviewed and contained essentially the same information previously reported concerning DE LUCIA's de-naturalization and tax evasion cases at Chicago. In addition to the above information, which has been previously reported, the following was noted:

In a portion of testimony before the Kefauver Crime Commission in 1950, DE LUCIA stated that he owned approximately $11,000.00 in United States Savings Bonds, as well as 180 shares of stock in the Bank of America, valued at $27.00 per share. DE LUCIA also claimed to own about two or three shares of the Farmer Grange Company, and stated that he had cash on hand at this time amounting to $40,000.00, which he keeps in a room at his home.

CG 92-347

According to DE LUCIA, he jointly owns a safety deposit box at the First National Bank in Chicago, Illinois, and that the property at Long Beach, Indiana, and River Forest, Illinois, is jointly owned by he and his wife.

In 1936, DE LUCIA set up a trust fund for each of his three children for $20,000.00.

Life Insurance policies for approximately $20,000.00 are held with the Northwest Wisconsin Life Insurance Company, for which he claims to pay a premium of $800.00 a year.

Concerning the $10,000.00 fine following his conviction in 1943, DE LUCIA stated he does not know who paid this fine and is not curious enough to find out.

DE LUCIA stated that both he and LOUIS CAMPAGNA paid a St. Louis attorney, by the name of [redacted] $5,000.00 apiece, in connection with services rendered in his 1943 movie extortion case.

DE LUCIA claimed that prior to the 1943 sentence, he had $300,000.00 stored in his house which he had obtained from gambling and that this was the most cash on hand he had at any one time. Most cash in a deposit box at one time is claimed to be $100,000.00.

DE LUCIA once belonged to the Unione - Siciliano, which has been changed to the Italo - American Union, an insurance organization. At the time of membership, JOSEPH BULGER was President, [redacted] was Secretary, and [redacted] was Treasurer.

DE LUCIA was asked if the Unione - Siciliano was call the Mafia, to which DE LUCIA advised that this organization was not known as the Mafia and that he had never been a member of the Mafia.

These records reflected that the following individuals or companies were served with subpoenas to appear April 1, 1958, in connection with DE LUCIA's Federal Tax Evasion case at Chicago, Illinois:

Records of the United States
Attorney's Office, Chicago, Illinois

On February 24, 1958, the records of the United States
Attorney's Office, Chicago, Illinois, made available by First Assistant United States Attorney FRANK J. MC GARR, reflected the following information regarding DE LUCIA, not previously reported:

CG 92-347

Investigation by INS disclosed a sworn statement of MICHAEL JAMES FISH of April 19, 1954. FISH's family name is LOPISCILLO, however, he has been known as FISH since a child. MICHAEL FISH, 6209 Winthrop, Chicago, was born on June 8, 1904, in Chicago, and is presently a part owner of Mike Fish's Restaurant, 160 East Ontario, which is a known hang out for Chicago top hoodlums and others. FISH stated during this interview that he has known PAUL DE LUCIA since the early 1920's when DE LUCIA managed the Dante Theater in Chicago. According to FISH, DE LUCIA was also a waiter at Coscioni's Restaurant and Esposito's Restaurant.

It is to be noted that MICHAEL FISH was a witness for PAUL DE LUCIA when DE LUCIA petitioned the United States Court for citizenship in 1928. The other witness for DE LUCIA was a [redacted] Chicago, Illinois.

FISH identified PAUL DE LUCIA as the PAUL MAGLIO, whom he knew in the early 1920's.

PAUL and NANCY DE LUCIA in 1927 and 1931, had a savings account at the First National Bank of Chicago, 38 South Dearborn, which account was opened with a $12.36 deposit.

PAUL DE LUCIA applied for a post office box #53 at River Forest, Illinois, on October 24, 1955. References furnished at this time were [redacted] River Forest, Illinois, and the Northern Trust Bank, Monroe and La Salle Streets, Chicago.

These records further reflected the following insurance policies of PAUL DE LUCIA held with the Northwestern National Life Insurance Company of Minneapolis, Minnesota, dated November 19, 1953:

March 3, 1936	457080	$5,000.00	Beneficiaries MARY ANNA and [redacted]

HUGO BENNETT, alias Hugo Benvenuti, was interviewed on August 27, 1955, by INS. BENNETT is listed as the Auditor of the Miami Beach Club, National Jockey Club, Sportsmen's Park, Chicago, and has stock in the Associated Outdoor Club, Orange Club, Kennel Club, and the Narragansett Park.

BENNETT has been associated with [redacted] at various race tracks in Chicago and Miami, Florida. BENNETT had stated that he made two loans to DE LUCIA, each for $40,000.00 in 1948 and 1950, although DE LUCIA reportedly had $300,000.00 in cash when he was released from prison in 1947. BENNETT claims that he made a loan of $15,000.00 from [redacted] a Chicago caterer, and race track concessionaire in Chicago and Miami, and also $15,000.00 from [redacted] to pay DE LUCIA. BENNETT was born October 2, 1904, in Naples, Italy.

On April 20, 1932, subject as PAUL VIELA was arrested in Chicago, Illinois, apparently on general principles and was dismissed on the same date. In the company of subject at this time were CHARLES LUCANIA, WILLIAM "LUCKY" LUCIANO, [redacted] and MEYER LANSKY.

On May 12, 1954, PAUL DE LUCIA surrendered a retirement annuity policy for its cash value with the Equitable Life Assurance Society, 120 South La Salle Street, Chicago, Illinois. Policy number 10830846 was issued on December 17, 1938, for an annuity of 20 units providing for monthly annuity payments with premiums of $2,000.00 annually in advance.

These records further reflected the birth certificates of PAUL DE LUCIA's children which are as follows:

These records also reflected the final summary report of the Internal Revenue Service dated October 11, 1954, in connection with their pending tax evasion case against the subject for the years 1948 through 1950, which is as follows:

The subject attempted to evade payment of correct income taxes for 1948 through 1950 by failing to report amounts of gross income believed to have been received from illegal activities during these years as evidenced by expenditures in excess of available funds.

CG 92-347

Under caption of Personal History and Background, PAUL DE LUCIA was described as a diabetic, who has chronic hemorrhoids and who was born at Apricenza, Italy on July 10, 1898. DE LUCIA walks with a limp as a result of an elevator fall in 1943 in which he suffered a fractured left hip and right foot. In February, 1948, he had a infected kidney removed at the Michael Reese Hospital.

At DE LUCIA's wedding, AL CAPONE was the best man and this wedding occurred on January 30, 1927, at the Holy Guardian Angel Church.

LEGITIMATE ENTERPRISES

PAUL DE LUCIA
Kendall County Farm

The following investigation was conducted by SA
[redacted] at Yorkville, Illinois.

On February 14, 1958, Chief WILLIAM A. MAIER was interviewed at the Sheriff's Office, Kendall County Court House. He stated that he recalls that from about 1942 through 1951, PAUL DE LUCIA was residing on a farm located on the extreme southwest corner of this county, commonly known as the Hoge farm. He stated that [redacted] the former owner of the property, lost this farm to the Prudential Insurance Company and that Prudential eventually sold the farm to DE LUCIA.

He stated that in about 1942, one HARVEY NOREM, who had operated the farm as a tenant for [redacted] was still on the farm and stayed on the farm for about a week after DE LUCIA took over, as he had a lease on the property. He stated that after NOREM left the DE LUCIA farm, one FRANCIS CURRY, a known hoodlum from Joliet, took over the operation of the DE LUCIA farm.

MAIER stated that during the time that DE LUCIA operated the farm no one ever knew what was really going on there as DE LUCIA brought in many strangers from the Chicago area, and that these people did not mix at all with the neighboring farmers. MAIER stated that he heard a rumor that DE LUCIA was only operating the farm as a front for the purpose of evading military service under the Selective Service Act of 1940. He also heard rumors that DE LUCIA may have been using the farm as a base for black market butchering operations during the years of World War II, but that nothing was ever developed to substantiate such allegations.

b7C

CG 92-347

He stated that outside of HARVEY NOREM and FRANCIS CURRY he knew of no one who had been a contact of DE LUCIA. He stated that the files of his office contained no record whatsoever for PAUL DE LUCIA, with aliases.

On February 14, 1958, Mr. JOHN R. MARSHALL, Owner and Publisher of the "Kendall County Record", was interviewed at his place of business at Yorkville. At this time, Mr. MARSHALL stated that the "Record" is a weekly newspaper which has been published since 1864, and which has a circulation limited to Kendall County. He stated that he and his brother are the ones who actually turn out the paper and that they have never printed any item whatsoever regarding DE LUCIA or any of his activities. He further advised that there are no daily papers in Kendall County.

By way of information Mr. MARSHALL stated that during World War II he had heard rumors to the effect that there was black market butchering actually going on at the DE LUCIA farm, but that no specific information of any kind was ever developed in that regard. Mr. MARSHALL further advised that he has no recollection of DE LUCIA ever being acquainted with anyone in Yorkville as Yorkville is approximately 20 miles or more from where the DE LUCIA farm was located.

On February 14, 1958, Mr. HARVEY NOREM was interviewed at his residence in Newark, Illinois. He advised that he operated the HOGE farm consisting of 835 acres for the Prudential Insurance Company after the insurance company had foreclosed on [redacted] and had a lease on the property from 1930 to 1943. Mr. NOREM stated that DE LUCIA gained control of this property in March, 1942, but the lease was already in effect and accordingly he, NOREM, stayed on for one more year and operated the farm until March, 1943.

b7C

He stated that he paid DE LUCIA for the use of his property for the period of one year at the rate of 50 per cent of the corn crop and two-fifths of the small grain proceedings. He stated that he paid a total of approximately

CG 92-347

NOREM stated while DE LUCIA was at the farm it was quite obvious that he and FRANCIS CURRY were close buddies as they were always together. He further advised that one [redacted] a small Italian from Joliet, used to hang around the farm and run errands for them in the town. It is to be noted that [redacted] is believed to be [redacted], a known Joliet hoodlum and bodyguard for FRANCIS CURRY.

b6
b7C

He stated that while he was in contact with DE LUCIA he knew him to have a checking account at the Yorkville National Bank, Yorkville, Illinois, and also an account at the Northern Trust Company in Chicago. He further advised that DE LUCIA has a home in River Forest, Illinois, and that he has visited DE LUCIA at that residence in the past. He could not furnish the address of DE LUCIA's home.

In conclusion Mr. NOREM advised SA [redacted] that he has been subpoenaed by the United States Attorney at Chicago to testify on February 18, 1958, in the United States District Court, Chicago, in an income tax evasion case regarding the subject.

The following investigation was conducted by SA JOHN M. NEWBOLD at Joliet, Illinois.

b7C

On February 12, 1958, [redacted] Joliet, Illinois, Real Estate Broker, advised SA NEWBOLD that he no longer maintained records concerning the sale of a 110 $\frac{1}{4}$ acre farm in Kendall County, Illinois, to PAUL DE LUCIA; however, [redacted] recalled the following information:

[redacted] stated that he has been in the real estate business most of his life and has been a broker for property owned by the Prudential Life Insurance Company. In 1942, a 110 $\frac{1}{4}$ acre farm in Kendall County, Illinois, was owned by Prudential, and then known as the HOGE farm. [redacted] stated that he was originally contacted by FRANCIS CURRY of Joliet,

CG 92-347

Illinois, regarding the purchase of this property for one PAUL DE LUCIA. The purchase price of the farm was about $145,000.00 and DE LUCIA made a $35,000.00 cash down payment and carried a Purchase Money Mortgage with the Prudential Company, then located in Springfield, Illinois. [redacted] recalled that the tenant on the farm at time of purchase was one HARVEY NOREM. NOREM remained on the farm for about one year and then a man by the name of [redacted] (phonetic), possibly first name [redacted], took over the management of the farm. However, [redacted] recalled that FRANCIS CURRY actually was responsible for the farm during the time of ownership by DE LUCIA.

b6
b7C

In 1951, [redacted] stated that he had received information from FRANCIS CURRY that DE LUCIA wanted to sell the farm. [redacted] contacted DE LUCIA as a broker and DE LUCIA eventually sold the farm in 1951 to [redacted] (phonetic), an attorney in New York City. The farm was sold for approximately $600,000.00; between $440,000.00 and $450,000.00 for the land and about $100,000.00 for the buildings. [redacted] stated that the Prudential Company was represented at the sale in 1951. [redacted] stated that he does not know DE LUCIA other than a client on these two occasions, and stated further information such as credit references, identity of attorneys, etc., would be in the possession of the Prudential Company.

b6
b7C

It is noted that FRANCIS JEROME CURRY is an alleged member of the syndicate who controls the Joliet, Illinois, area and who maintains a home also in Miami Beach, Florida.
